

MATTHEW HANSEN ENDOWMENT

This Endowment grants awards to students and independent scholars for projects that explore Montana's land and people through historical research, wilderness studies, and creative writing - whose work promotes the protection, enhancement, & understanding of wilderness values or the wilderness resource in Montana.

Funding is competitive. Awards range from $500-$2,500.

Submit by April 9, 2021

We hope, as Matthew did, that these projects will encourage mindful stewardship of the land and contribute to Montana's cultural heritage.

For more information about this endowment or to submit an application, kindly visit cfc.umt.edu/wi/research/matthew-hansen.php