BUYING INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Dillard's Buying Internship Program is designed to facilitate an on-the-job learning experience for students interested in a career in Fashion.

Our internship provides a hands-on learning environment in which university students gain insight into this exciting industry. The 10-week program includes intensive training, exposure to senior leadership and the opportunity to make an impact on the business.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Dillard's internship program will expose college juniors and seniors into the fascinating world of retail buying.

As an intern, you will gain leadership and teamwork experience in a fast-paced environment while learning the fundamentals in your chosen career path.

This is a great paid opportunity to gain experience in the retail buying world at one of the largest fashion retailers in the United States.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Our internship program provides a unique opportunity for full-time college or graduate students to work side-by-side with the finest talent in the industry. The intern will learn aspects of the buying process which includes open to buy, assortment planning, ordering, forecasting, advertising and other related tasks applied to buying functions. Interns will attend classroom instructions on various topics taught by buyers and division management.

The internship is a 10-week program and Dillard's will pay an hourly rate for a 40 hour work week; Monday through Friday.

Internships are available at the Dillard's regional buying office located in Gilbert, Arizona.
