

Show someone you care this Valentine's Day!

In conjunction with Josie's House of Flowers, Moving Research into Practice (MRP) is making your Valentine's Day order EASY and AFFORDABLE.

You can place pre-orders for your Valentine's flowers and not only receive the highest quality, long stem, professionally arranged roses, but you will also support student research that makes a difference for the UA community everyday.

Moving Research into Practice (MRP) works in collaboration with Campus Health on the "Project Lifeline" grant. "Project Lifeline" is a 3- year grant that funds research on depression and suicide among college students. MRP's goal is to help promote awareness, as well as aide in the design and implementation of depression resources for University of Arizona students.

Through MRP you can pre-order...
