ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

To be eligible to receive funds from the Benjamin and Josephine Webber Trusts you must be female, enroll in a "Family and Consumer Sciences" curriculum in an accredited Arizona post-secondary institution, and have a mining community affiliation.

GENDER _____ (Are you Male or Female?)

PLACE OF STUDY

Write the name of the Arizona community college(s), college(s) or university(ies) you plan to attend during your undergraduate studies.

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES CURRICULUM

1. Write the name of the Family and Consumer Sciences major you plan to study on the line below. It is recommended that you check to see whether your chosen major is included in the online listing of family and consumer sciences curriculums. NOTE: You might be interested in a program that has not yet been posted. A call to the Webber chairperson is recommended to clarify your choice.

2. From the catalog of the community college(s) and/or university(ies) you plan to attend, print the description of courses and other requirements necessary to complete your chosen major and attach it to this application form. Finding and printing a program of study (a document that gives the recommended sequence of classes) is preferred because you can see at a glance what courses are required and in what sequence.

Attach this information to the end of this application form.

MINING COMMUNITY AFFILIATION

Mining community affiliation is established when you have gone to school in a mining community (particularly when you graduate from a mining community high school). Your mining community connection is strengthened when one of your parents is working for or has worked for a mining company. If you have not lived in or attended a mining community school you can establish eligibility to receive Webber Trust Funds by showing that a member of your family has a strong connection with mining in Arizona.

Arizona mining communities are Ajo, Arizona City, Bisbee, Clifton, Douglas, Duncan, Green Valley, Hayden, Globe, Kingman, Kearny, Mammoth, Morenci, Prescott, Safford, Sahuarita, San Manuel, Seligman, Superior, and Winkelman.

Complete the following items limiting your answer to the space provided:

1. Name the mining community schools you attended or are currently attending.

Name	Town	Dates attended	GPA
------	------	----------------	-----

2. Fill in the date of your expected high school graduation _____

3. Name Arizona towns in which you have lived other than those in item 1 above.

4. Describe your parents (biologic or adoptive) connection with mining. The Selection committee wants to know your parent's name, the name of the mining company the parent worked for, the dates of employment, and the type of work your parent engaged in.

5. Describe other family members who have or had a connection with mining or Arizona mining communities. The Selection committee wants to know the family member's name, the name of the mining company each family member worked for, the dates of employment, and the type of work your family member engaged in.

PREFERENCE INFORMATION

A. Hispanic vs Non-Hispanic

Benjamin and Josephine Webber have instructed that preference be given to students who are Hispanic but allow non-Hispanic students to apply and be provided funding when there are more funds to distribute than Hispanic women to receive them. . If you are Hispanic, please complete items 1 and 2 providing complete names for each person and the name of the town in which they were born so that the Committee can verify the information you provide. If you are not Hispanic, go to Part B.

1. Describe your father's Hispanic heritage. The committee wants to know the names of each individual in your heritage and that individual's place of birth so the information you provide can be checked.

2. Describe your mother's Hispanic heritage. The committee wants to know the names of each individual in your heritage and that individual's place of birth so the information you provide can be checked.

B. Spanish/Portuguese Fluency

YOUR VISION OF YOUR FUTURE

Type at least a four-page double-spaced essay in which you answer each of the three questions stated below. This is perhaps the most important part of your application. Attach your essay to this application form.

1. Why have you chosen to study a major in Family and Consumer Sciences?
2. What do you think the major obstacles will be to the successful completion of your first year as a Webber scholar?
3. What do you think your personal and professional life will be like following completion of your post-secondary education?

SIGNATURE _____ Date _____

Your signature is required. It indicates that you have provided full financial disclosures and have answered all questions on this application form truthfully. All applicants must comply with the conditions set forth on the Memorandum of Agreement and must declare all sources of income/support other than parental/guardian on that form while they are accepting trust funds from the Benjamin and Josephine Webber trust accounts. Failure to do so will result in instant termination of funding from the trust accounts and notification to the Webber scholar for return of all funds over the amount they were entitled to receive.

Reminder: Consult the “Checklist for Applicants” to be sure that all required materials are submitted with this form.
